

COMMERCIAL AFFAIRS

Monetary and Commercial.

Finances yesterday, so far as we could learn, were without any particular change from last week. The Banking quarter continued quiet, and in some places with a moderate upward flow.

the rates of which remained at $310 per ton for approved Paper. Currency receipts were not, and likely to remain so during the week. Western Exchange was still inactive, but steady. Beans and S. prem. Gold firm at 1/4 and 1/2c. prem. and selling rate.

New Orleans Exchange nothing was done, and current Money was unchanged.

Interest on Government bonds, consequence rates that made from and West. being scarce and

and at very full prices—$4 75/25 for fair to good bush. New Wheat Flour was hard to sell and 'ull
$6 00/25 50. The sales were 303 bush, at prices ranging from $4 00/25 75. Whisky was rather dull and easy, though some was sold at 1.15 bush.
Provisions were very quiet, and hardly any dealing in any article. The offerings of Wheat liberal and the market dull, without any change, however, in rates. Corn and Bye continued dull, and Oats and Barley dull.

the last forty-eight hours ending yesterday were as follows:

oner matters are more quiet to-day, and there is inquiry for accommodation on call, and not quite such pressure of paper upon the market. The Favorite lines of short Passer are fully taken at 50-55, and longer dates at 40-7 per cent. for best to fair names. An opinion that the market seemed to be shaped upon the course that other rates will take in the near future, which are likely to be available when the demand shall be increased. The wants of the Fall trade, and the movement of the crops to the seaboard.

Thus far the fall trade has been lighter than usual.

Southern buyers, who import such staple crops by business methods, will naturally be anxious to know they were last year, and in some instances the sales to them are counted by hundreds instead of thousands? There are some Western purchasers here, but thus far they have bought carefully. If the reports are all true of the extent of the crop of the present year in their section, however, may reasonably expect that the excess of the business that others will make this year will be for falling off in others. From the poor crops and straggled meadows of the past two years the stocks of

There is a moderate business doing in Foreign Exchange for the Vanderbilt and City of Baltimore Banks of to-morrow. The range for Bank and Bankers' Bills on London is 109/10 to 110, a few of the City Drawers asking the latter price, but no sales trend 109 1/2 have come to our knowledge. Yesterday's St. Louis Democrat remarks:

Currency is quite scarce, and only nominally selling below Bankable funds. It has been remitted only to Chicago for Exchange, and only gets out gradually among the grain purchasers. Collections from the various parts of the country by our correspondents have been sent to Chicago for the Night Exchange on the East closes in fair supply; rather both Bankable funds and Currency are so scarce that those in want of Exchange have nothing to pay for it. Buying rate 4% prem., selling 1% prem.
